

Jingle Bells

Oh What Fun! Ask one person to blindly fill in the blanks – you do this by saying ‘plural noun’...they say something and you write it down. Do NOT let them see this paper. For ‘grammar’ help, see the bottom. After you complete all of the blanks...sing back the familiar Christmas Carol with their words inserted. Try not to laugh!

Verb is an action word.

Noun is a person/place or thing.

An adjective describes a noun.

An adverb is a word that modifies the meaning of a verb – usually formed by adding -ly to an adjective

The Superlative is the form of an adjective or adverb that shows which thing has that quality above or below the level of the others. There must be three or more to use the superlative. It takes the definite article and short adjectives add -est and longer ones take 'most'.

Possessive Noun names who or what has or owns something.
