

Newly-wed Game Questions

Have 4 couples compete. Have the men sit in chairs and send the girls out of the room (where they can't hear a thing.) And ask the men the first 4 questions. Bring the women back in and have them answer the same questions. 1 point for each correct match (in the event of a questionable answer, have the audience vote.) You then send the men out and ask the ladies the next 4 questions. Bring the guys back in and have them answer the same questions. Winning couple gets a prize and lots of laughs 😊
